ORDER AMENDING RESOLUTION 2-10/11 HONORING MAINE AND UNITED STATES SOLDIERS

ORDERED, that the wording approved in Resolution 2-10/11, Honoring Maine and United States Soldiers, approved by the Council on September 13, 2010 for use on a plaque to be located at the Portland International Jetport is hereby repealed and replaced with the following wording:

“The Portland International Jetport is a point of departure for Maine members of the Armed Forces, en route to serve their country. It is also a point of arrival upon their return.

The people of Maine would like to express their gratitude for, and their pride in, these brave men and women for their selfless service to Country. We would like to honor all Americans whose valor and devotion to Country is and will continue to be a precious gift for generations to come.”
