Picnic tables are than 6 feet apart, with no masked customers at the tables, and no way to use the sidewalk without passing within less than 6 feet of the tables. It's one thing for the City to have approved an outdoor seating expansion; it's another the business with the expansion granted to be in flagrant disregard of state and municipal laws put into place to keep citizens (and customers of Mellen Street Market) safe. The delivery staff bringing food outside are often not ...
